

Botox

Botox cosmetic works by blocking nerve impulses, reducing movement of muscles in the area treated. Because the movement is lessened, the skin's surface gradually smoothes out and frown lines between your brows begin to fade. Results can be seen within days after treatment. The optimum results are seen at about two weeks after treatment. Each treatment generally lasts up to three months.

Sclerotherapy

This treatment consists of injecting a sclerosing agent into the vein through a tiny needle. Once the solution is injected into the vein, the blood in the vein is replaced with the sclerosing agent causing irritation and corrosion to the wall of the vessel. Soon after the vein begins to decompose, shrink and eventually disappear during the body's natural healing process. Gradually improvement will be noticed and in some cases several treatments may be required to achieve optimal results.
